

Gatto Fritto

“Bursting The Bubble”

& “Radio B-92”

Electric Minds are proud to present Gatto Fritto for our 3rd release. A talented musician and producer from North London, he has been steadily building a reputation through his releases on London based Dissident Distribution. Extending his repertoire further he brings another quality production to Electric Minds.

The A side “Bursting The Bubble” is a nine minute jam with quirky sync samples, heavy bass and a change in direction half way through the track which is becoming a trade mark of Gatto Fritto’s productions. Keen to hear DJ reactions, this ones for the early morning dance floor !!

The B side “Radio B-92” did not make its place on our first release, as planned, but were delighted to have been able to include it here. It is a sync rich track taking inspiration from New York’s 80’s electro scene, a perfect compliment to what is already a very strong 12” release. House heads as well as the cosmic fans will appreciate both productions !

Reactions:

“really liking "bursting the bubble", would love a vinyl copy as I definitely would play it out. "b92" is very nice as well” –
Prins Thomas, Full Pupp Norway

“I heard the Gatto Fritto tune on Bill Brewster mos show and was blown away by the track !!” - Toby Tobias

Got the CDs, sounds good – will play on radio show – Stuart Patterson

“thanks for the cd, please keep sending this stuff” – Conrad, Idjut Boys

“I like it! Has the heavyweight depth and plod so all good! ” – Dave Blackgrove, DestinationOut.com / Sambalanco

I really like both tracks on this CD. The a-side in particular is perfect for later in the night when everything gets a bit spacey.
– Damon Martin, Disco Bloodbath

Electric Minds Music has been created after a series of successful Electric Minds events in London’s East End over the last 3 years. Artists such as Yam Who, Toni Rosano (Blackbeard), Kirk Degiorgio, Gatto Fritto and Zaf Chowdry have provided the sound track to the parties and it was only a matter of time before we called upon their production talents to help launch Electric Minds first 12” vinyl releases.

Electric Minds exposure and brand has built steadily over its 3 year life. From humble beginnings as an East End Warehouse Party promoted by little more than word of mouth we have progressed to gaining support from Metro’s Rahul Verma as well as features in London Paper, London Lite, What’s On In London, Guardian Guide, Time Out, Mixmag, Myspace & Flavorpill. We hope to continue with the exposure and create awareness of our artist’s excellent production skills.
